- 7) For schools of all levels and for cinema schools, the material must be filled, signed and sent exclusively by the school Principal or by the legal representatives or by delegation from their representatives by attaching the identification document.
- 8) Any irregularity or default of this Regulation (Art. 3) will void the contest entry.

art. 4 Selection of Works

All submitted works, before being submitted to the juries, will be reviewed and selected, checking the correctness of the requirements (art.1) and compliance with the regulation (art.3), by a committee composed by the direction of OMOVIES @ SCHOOL Festival and by representatives of the no-profit association i Ken.

The Festival managing-board will announce the results of the selection by e-mail at the address indicated by the authors by February 10th 2021. The works selected for the awards, will be divided into two main sections: FICTION and DOCUMENTARY, meanwhile, a different section for the works of the SPOT category is planned. In addition, the works selected for the awards will be further divided according to the genre if there will be a minimum number of five (5) competitors for each category.

The general programming and screening times are the sole responsibility of the organizers of OMOVIES@SCHOOL Festival.

art.5 Jury panel

OMOVIES Festival Management will appoint a general Jury of experts, with the exception of those who have contributed to the creation of the works in competition or may be interested in using them. The general jury will then be divided into as many juries as there are prizes to be awarded and based on the type of works presented in the competition. The voting of the Jury members will be also attended by a representative of OMOVIES Festival with the purpose of providing assistance in the field of regulation and practice. The names of the members of the general Jury, other than recruiters, will be made public at the Press conference of the Festival presentation and announced on the website www.omovies.it

The Jury's decisions are unquestionable and final.
